

Table of Contents

Overview for Parents and Teachers	7
A Word from the Publisher	9
Introduction by Hamza Yusuf Hanson	11
Chapter 1 Two Kinds of Learning	23
Chapter 2 Animals and People	29
Chapter 3 The Two Worlds	33
Chapter 4 How to Enter the Garden	37
Chapter 5 Excellence of Learning	41
Chapter 6 The Best Gift of All	45
Chapter 7 How Do You Stay Really Happy All the Time?	49
Chapter 8 Pretend You Are a Tiny Seed	53
Chapter 9 The Three Things We Need Most in This Life	57
Chapter 10 Sharing the Treasure	63
Chapter 11 What Are Things You Must Learn	67
Chapter 12 Where Do the Wonderful Things We Can Learn Come From?	71
Chapter 13 More About the Two Worlds: A Family Trip	75
Chapter 14 Two Kinds of Things You Can Learn— Knowledge That Makes Your Heart Shine	83
Chapter 15 The Story of the Two Wolves	89
Chapter 16 Important Things You Cannot See	93
Chapter 17 More Ways to Make Your Heart Shine! and The Four Imams	97
Chapter 18 The Ant and the Pen	103

The Book of Knowledge For Children

Chapter 19 A Little Boy Loses His Father's Horse	109
Chapter 20 The Little Gardens Inside the Garden	115
Chapter 21 How Can You Watch Your Very Own Hearts?	119
Chapter 22 Envy	123
Chapter 23 Having Pride and Being Spiteful	127
Chapter 24 Back-Biting	131
Chapter 25 Beware of Making Excuses, Bragging, Prying and Spying	135
Chapter 26 Not Wanting the Best for Others	139
Chapter 27 Being Two-Faced: Hypocrisy	143
Chapter 28 More Problems with Arguing	147
Chapter 29 A Question for You	151
Chapter 30 Your Heart Is Like a House	157
Chapter 31 Doing Too Many Things	161
Chapter 32 The Teacher, the Lion, and the Jug of Water	165
Chapter 33 When You Shoot an Arrow, You Need a Target	171
Chapter 34 The Camels Leave	177
Chapter 35 Grandfather Explains Some Important Ideas	183
Chapter 36 The Three Selves	187
Chapter 37 Getting Rich and Getting Knowledge	195
Chapter 38 Being a Teacher	201
Chapter 39 Playing School	205
Chapter 40 The Two Trees	209
Index of Sources	212